Very pleasant to deal with. Likes what she does and works hard at it. I would use her again.

That specific needle in my family haystack appears to be smaller than we both thought. Even though Denise did not find that specific link, she exhausted every effort to find information linking my family, in Arkansas, to the families in PA, VA, and WV. Thank you for the information you did find and your time and efforts in this project.

Denise is the most wonderful, hard working person I've met. She goes more than the extra mile for you. I can't say enough good things about her and the help she has given me on my family tree.

Denise at Ever-After Enterprises made a mistake in her date of delivery by saying she could deliver the record in a day when she intended sometime the Denise has found evidence as to where the Garbers came from but as yet no absolute confirmation. We are still working on this project. She is very thorough. My project is very difficult as I knew it would be. I'm satisfied with the work done so far and would recommend her to anyone.

Denise is a true professional who has exceeded my expectations. She has been great with her updates and communications and has turned every corner looking for every clue in her research.

Denise was amazing. She was able to obtain so much information it surprised me. She was very good at communicating and really dug into the project. If there was a way to give 6 stars, I would have. I have had several projects done on Ancestry and have been very satisfied with them all, but Ever-After-Enterprises was a level above. I would highly recommend her for any research. Thanks.

Denise was very professional and tried very hard to meet my objective. I was satisfied with her efforts and found her to be very fair and thorough.

great detail provided but no new information from what I had previously known. Was hoping to trace beyond Iowa where my Father was born but still facing a dead end.

There was a mix up that caused a bit of confusion, but that was quickly straightened out. I received a good deal of information.

Denise did a fabulous job on finding background information on my family so that I can continue researching myself. She found information connecting my relatives to other families in Ohio that I was unaware of.

Very good. I have some research projects that are not that easy or routine. Ms. Gripp went beyond the minimum required.
